

Boarding Release

Canine boarders will stay in our climate-controlled kennel in separate, spacious cages. They are walked several times throughout the day within our fenced in backyard, monitored by our kennel staff, and never allowed to mingle with other pets for everyone's safety.

Feline boarders are given their own cages in a climate-controlled room dedicated to cats. They are cared for several times throughout the day by our kennel staff, and are never allowed to mingle with other pets for everyone's safety.
